

A New Chapter:

(Spoken English Class "Each One Teach One.")

PRESENTED BY-

Aaryan Kayal

The Doon School

The dawn unfolded gracefully, casting a canvas of promise and hope across the sky—a reflection of the success of my transformative initiative, Project: A Curriculum for Literacy Advancement through Spoken English Classes, guided by the empowering motto, "Each One Teach One." Nestled in the rustic embrace of North Guwahati, Assam, this journey marked the commencement of a new chapter, inviting me to explore uncharted territories. It was a narrative eager to unfold, and my attention turned to Bamungaon in the Lanka, Hojai District of Assam—a blank canvas awaiting the brushstrokes of change.

To infuse the young minds of Bamungaon with zeal and a personal touch, I meticulously crafted six modules drawn from the vast expanse of the internet and my own repository of knowledge. The ensuing success resonated like a triumphant symphony—a harmonious blend of peers attentively listening, absorbing wisdom, and contributing their best to the arena of linguistic artistry.

In Bamungaon, the project unfolded seamlessly as the college professor rallied wholeheartedly behind the cause, transforming it into an extraordinary campaign. The support received was not just logistical; it was a manifestation of belief, akin to ancient trees firmly rooted in the soil of collective progress.

The enthusiasm of budding intellects illuminated the shadows of ignorance. The Spoken English Class, "Each One Teach One," evolved beyond a mere curriculum; it became a shared journey of growth and enlightenment.

In this picturesque heartland of Assam, a new chapter has unfolded—one where the spoken word transcends barriers, creating a symphony of shared knowledge that connects hearts and minds. Each one teaches one, and in doing so, we weave a tale of empowerment, resilience, and the enduring spirit of education.

Sophie is eleven years old and she lives in Brighton, England. She usually gets up at a quarter to eight, she has a shower, gets dressed and then she brushes her teeth. After that, she goes downstairs and has breakfast. For breakfast she usually has milk, toast and orange juice. Then she brushes her teeth again because she likes them white and healthy!

Then she grabs her school bag and goes to the bus stop to catch the school bus. Classes start at half past eight and finish at half past four. She usually has lunch at the school canteen with her schoolmates at about 12 o'clock. Her best friend is Amy and Sophie always sits next to her at lunch.

After school she returns home and does her homework. She is a very hard-working pupil and she never misses a school lesson. After homework, she usually listens to music and watches television a bit.

At half past seven it is time for dinner. Then she usually reads a book or chats with her parents for a while. Finally, she goes to bed at about ten o'clock, but before that she brushes her teeth. Sophie is a happy little girl!
